a year
part of a lifetime
a time to live or just exist
to sit and watch or get involved
most of all
a time to remember
a time to strive to reach for goals
to make a dream come true
sometimes the song is not so sweet
defeat can be bitter goodbyes tearful yet we must endure
we must grow
we must share ourselves we are one and many individuals
we challenge the world yet we are dependent on all the nameless somebodies
for strength for unity
for understanding whether following or leading each of us leaves his mark no matter how small for no one and nothing is insignificant man must do what he must do living isn't easy and we should relish
every breath
as if it were one less not one more
it was a time to learn a time to love
a time to remember
yet it was like any other part of a lifetime

May the Love of Jesus Shine
through you always.
And bless you with many, many babies.
Praise the Lord. And lots of dirty dishes and dirty diapers. Hallelujah.

and grades are hard to get afraid of failure rejection from a college restrictions from parents suspension from school wanting to feel that we are good all we need is to be needed

fear

waiting for an answer a word from a POW acceptance from a college it seems that no one understands books and rules confuse us it's hard to say

understanding

with classes almost over they remember harder days and then laugh at what students taught them now left behind they hope we've learned more than just a lesson disguised in chalk and papers their love was ever faithful and yet
because the year has ended they will never forget their constant hope of being a part in our success

Senior Class Highlights Year's End With Prom At Hilton Inn the class of 1973

the end of past beginnings awaiting graduation increased enthusiasm in school events for it was now or never winners of the spirit cannon victory was their goal as they secured first place in the homecoming parade their glory of accomplishment reflected on the face of homecoming queen Lynn Murphey with winter winds came the defeat of powderpuff as senior girls struggled to fulfill tradition yet the obstacles
of competition
could not challenge their love of laughter as powderpuff queen Vernon Ward wore his crown together the senior class combined their talents with the drama club and presented "Inherit the Wind" as individuals their lives were busy with works as they progressed towards their chosen destinies the senior prom held at the Hilton Inn was the year's highlight as seniors ended a part of their lifetime they went in search of new success
their preparation for life was an advantage for this was their generation and 1973
was the beginning of tomorrow

The officers of the class of 1973, Pam Bechard, v.p., Linda Palmer, we do not know what it's all about following the teachings of those before us we strive to meet deadlines preparing for a journey we need each other to catch us when we fall we have far to go and much to learn but with help from friends we will discover and succeed

Imaginative Officers Lead Class Of '74

the 620 members of the junior class progressed towards their year of '74 united behind strong leaders broadening their knowledge with the challenge of PSAT's they prepared for college boards with pride they wore their rings which distinguished them from lower classmen participating in homecoming events they sponsored the annual mum sale exhibiting their imagination and creativity the homecoming float "jonas and the whale" took second place this show of originality was only the beginning in an effort to raise money for the junior prom a new idea evolved under the name of junior jollies they attempted to display their unusual talents through a variety of skits their efforts to raise money also included a candy sale as 1973 came to a close they left behind a busy year knowing well that they would be busier for their time was yet to come always moving

we strive for goals to graduate
to find a job to get a grade
life is refreshing running against the wind with determination
we beat old scores and set new records earning the rewards of success a scholarship
a career
an aching body sometimes we face defeat but there will be tomorrow another day to make the mark to challenge the past to overcome weaknesses to beat the clock
it's all in the game of life and we can only do our best

Patriots Finish Season With A 5 And 5 Record the middle of August came only too soon back again at practice starting the season against Hampton the Patriots couldn't quite put it together and lost 28 to 0 coming back next week the Patriots won against Granby 26 to 0 although some starters were sidelined with hopes high they were again dampened

20 to 6 P.A.'s favor Chris Swecker and the team decided to come back and win the next two against Kempsville and Bayside 21 to 13 and 20 to 17 respectively thinking that it was finally all together the Patriots again were defeated by Cox in a heartbreaker 9 to 7 practices dragged on and injuries took thier toll still thirsting for victory the Patriots faced B. T. Washington and achieved an easy

46 to 6 victory especially wanting a win over Maury the team worked hard going into the game perhaps looking the best they ever had they took the lead until the fourth quarter when again Maury won another heartbreaker for the Patriots 22 to 14 still dazzled by the loss the team couldn't get it together against

Lake Taylor and were again defeated 40 to 33 the season's end drew near and the Patriots wanted to come out with at least an even win loss column the last game of the season was at home with the Patriots defeating Kellam 20 to 14

the last week of practice went by only too quickly and soon it was game time defeating Kellam 20 to 14 the Patriots were jubilant with the victory and the end of the season a season not of complete victory but then not of complete loss

(top) The wide angle lens captures the Patriots in an offensive line. (lower top) This series of photos tells it all; on the line, breaking away, and a score, "Touchdown!"

Hard Practices Pay Off In The End

starting with a cheer the patriot girls field hockey team began another game opening the season with a loss against Kempsville the team came back to win four in a row expecting a fantastic season they then fell into a slump with four ties but a tie is better than a loss especially against teams like O.D.U. and Cox the rest of the season ran out with two ties and two losses top scorers were Edna Mobley, Janice Berry, Viola Etheridge, and Bonnie Brown oranges at halftime bruised skins and knuckles are only part of the game the other part is the fun and enjoyment

expecting a good season with a large amount of returned seniors the basketball team was soon to find that it was not going to be all down hill starting off with two losses the team finally rallied and then won five games straight team spirit was high and the patriots again thought that it was going to be a great season

Indoor Track Team Wins Eastern District Title braving the sub-freezing temperatures of winter the indoor track team carried on the tradition of the outdoor team winning all of the dual meets in which they competed the patriots climaxed the season by winning the eastern district indoor meet held against eleven other district teams long hours of practice in the halls after school made the team what it was . . . the j.v. basketball team had a very good year ending with a winning season hard work paid off in the end for these boys and the team also did well in the tournament only losing to maury by six points in the finals combining strength with grace and long hours of practice the gymnastic teams got into top shape for their meets starting in december and working every night until that one section of the routine was down pat learning new parts to work into old routines took up time that could have been spent doing any number of things but still they pushed on towards perfection winning a meet was the ultimate goal but a correctly performed routine was the self-satisfaction needed to continue onwards always working for that half point the gymnastic teams show that man can master his body

Gymnasts Find Individual Reward Through Their Efforts

with seemingly endless practices the wrestling team worked on each move until it became a reaction not a thought beginning the season with a win the patriots then suffered a loss to P.A. again the team got together and won another match only to lose the next three matches were victories for the patriots with Jerry Pontes still remaining undefeated always working always trying to make that weight

First Colonial Wrestlers Work Hard For Victories

Matmen Do Their Best For F.C.

sweating out hours in practice just to get one move down each man working for himself and for the total team in the last two matches the team just did not have enough individual wins to pull out a team victory prospects for next year look good as this year's team has only five seniors competing always working for one more win with never ending practices the wrestling team wrestles on

Patriots Build With Winning 10 And 7 Season

1972 was supposedly a building year for the varsity baseball team for Coach Shackelford what emerged was a team loaded with speed, determination, and timely hitting, which completed a fine winning season pitchers Rick Lavrischeff and Dave Bumgardner set knockout records on the mound while hitting, Mitch Swecker, Chris Paphites, Tom Stovall, and others compiled .300 or better batting averages with eight starters returning next year hopes are high for a fine season hard work and long practices paid off for the Patriots at the end of the season

Tennis And J. V. Baseball Teams Hit Their Ways To Victory

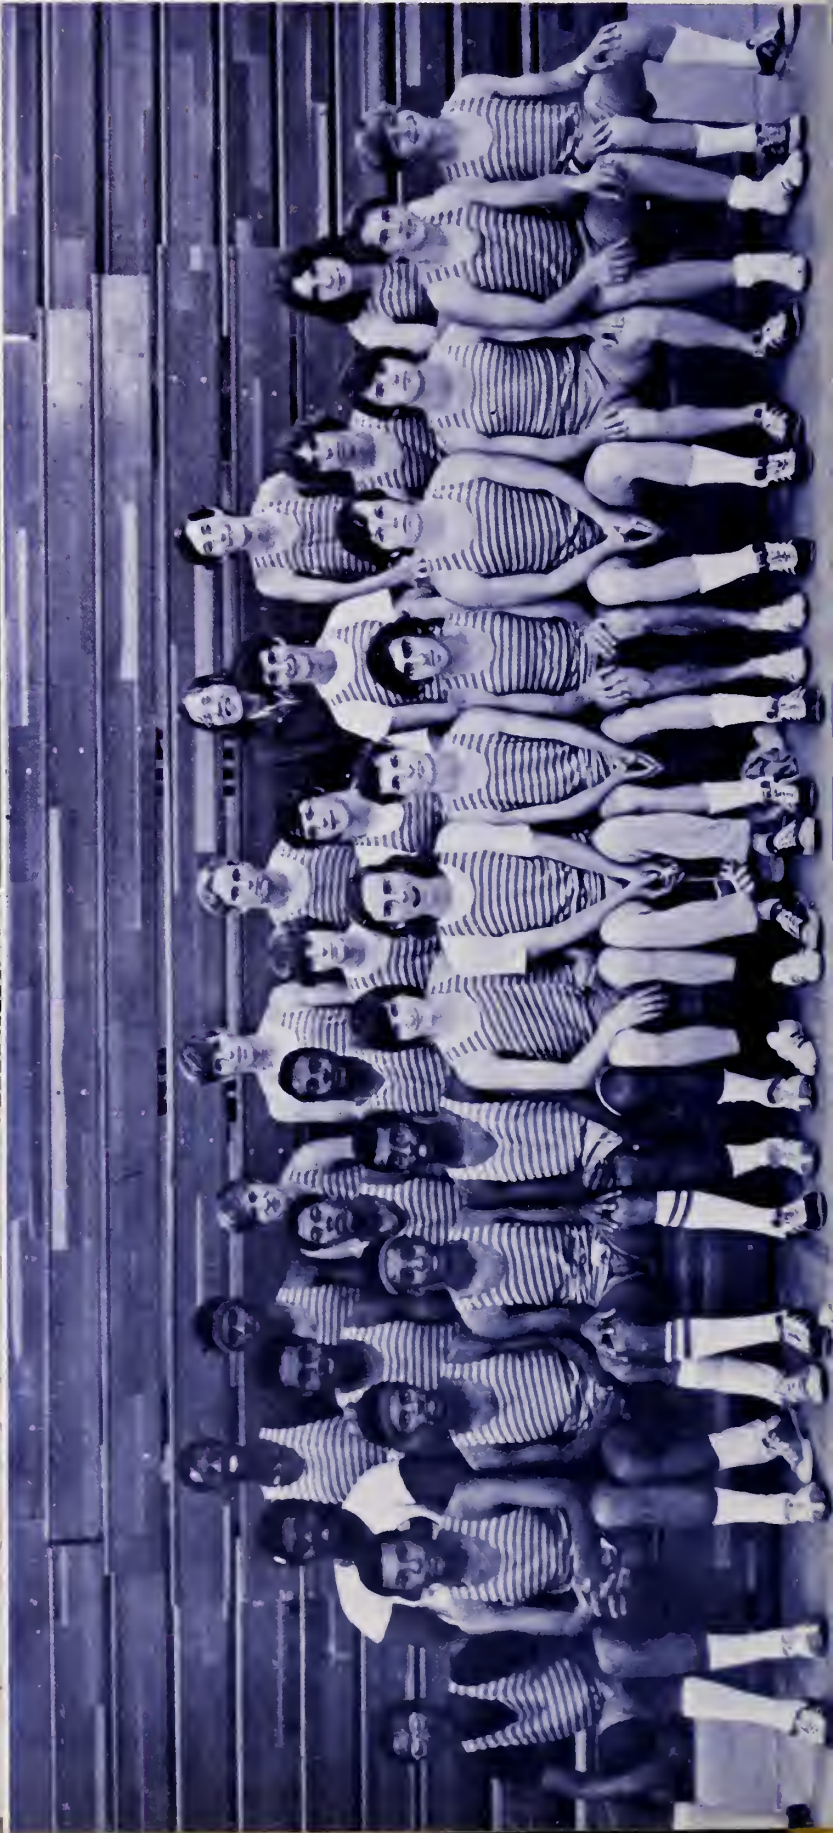

the tennis team had a new addition to its ranks this year due to a ruling by the state girls could now compete in any noncontact sport with boys with this in mind Linda Redford went out and made the team with only four team members not returning the tennis team expects another fine year of competition the junior varsity baseball team was composed of a working unit out to win for with practices in the cold and rain of early march the outdoor track team prepared to keep up its winning streak of 38 consecutive victories pushing beyond the pain barrier many days and sometimes gutting the last few steps of a race out are the attributes of a hard working team total team work and individual striving made the team what it is and will be

Rock Concert

There is a great noise in the room,
The babble of voices,
The squeaking of chairs.
Smoke covers it all completely,
The smoke of nervousness,
The air of suffocation.
People glance at each other distrustingly,
Self-conscious people,
Suspicious people.
Separate people.
Suddenly the light descends,
A darkness always hides, A blackness always shields:
Then a hush comes over the crowd,
A silence always death,
A quiet always unnatural.
The first unifying note begins to sound, Hearts touching,
Minds touching,
Souls touching,
The music ties them all together,
Some lines are life,
Some lines are hope.
The drum becomes the heartbeat,
Some rolls are fast,
Some beats are slow.
The voice is that of the unified being,
Strong voice,
Demanding voice,
Beautiful voice.
Songs can be sung so very sweet,
They are songs of love,
They are words of poetry.
Music must be played with strength,
They are beats of freedom,
They are sounds of youth.
Yet it makes the people come alive, Happy faces,
Sad faces,
Distinct faces.
At once it is over; finished, Again there is silence, Again there is coldness.
The shock of seeing light returns, Again there is daylight, Again there is fright.
People glance at each other distrustingly,
Self-conscious people,
Suspicious people,
Separate people.

Music Fills The Void With Creativity

Communication Through Imagination

My life was blank Till you came in Painting promises with crayons And filling up the emptiness Within

And with each day
The painting grew
With laughter, hopes and fun
And colored every corner Of my dreams

And then one day
You brought me tears
And washed the crayon from its walls Until my life was blank again

Debbie Downing

Sitting here
 Watching the waters
 Bring to mind
 The endlessness of time.
 But, there again....
 The waters can be stopped.
 But time moves on forever.

The names
 And faces of time
 Change and age.
 And the world's intentions Bring about wars
 That will never end.
 But there is a part of time
 That never changes
 That never ends.
 Those ageless words
 This is my friend.

P.S. Thanks for the vacation rides

LOST, LONELY, and FORGOTTEN

You say you've lived and talk of life
The answers all are yours,
You laugh at me;
Because I don't think like you.
I like you but I'm sorry - I cannot buy your story; For I see what you base it on And I sense your crowning glory.

I watch your identity go up in smoke
And you say,
What a heavy stone!
Oh, man, you ought to try it.
But I have and I can't buy it - I see you pushing others ASIDE Your excuse:
They're NOT COOL.

I watch you laugh
At politics, religion, and philosophy And yet, you talk of life.
What is life?
Man, you ought to try it!

I see you wearing your plastic face And fade into the crowd All this time you cry:
Identity,
But in a crowd you stand lost Lonely, And Forgotten.

You can have your shallow, fun-filled life - I hear you laugh
As I say there must be more.
When before you spoke of respect for other ideas.

I can't condemn you.
You are only one in a thousand -
But in your cries of identity and stories of life I see one little boy lost in the crowd - Lonely, and forgotten.

PAPA
SAM'S

1973

Have fun this summer & your years in school forever!
May the lord bless you real good. That's the truth. You know I always think of what's gonna happen to us cause suppose I move or you move. Or some day all the kid at church will live there own ^{haha} life. Having there own children. May-be if we're lucky we will too.
But what will happen to use. I like this picture cause it shows the beauty of the world. Even little this. like this weed.

You've made my year at First Colonial High School. You made my dark days, turn into bright days. If someday we separate And if we don't meet when we become old hags. ~~Then~~ I'll meet you in the good Lords house.

Christan
Love Debbie M.

To describe this year in full would take endless time and pages. We, the Heritage Staff of 1973, have tried to put together in this yearbook things which we felt were most significant. There are really no words to express my appreciation to the many, many people who made this yearbook possible. I would like to give my most sincere thanks to our sponsors, Mrs. Gwen Infantino and Mrs. Clemence Stephen and to my staff -- for without them this yearbook couldn't have been created.

My thanks go also to Mr. Carlton Bowyer for allowing us freedom of expression. Special thanks to Mr. John Perry of Hunter Publishing Co. for his ideas and time, and to Mr. William McIntosh and his staff for their exceptional photographs. Students who also deserve recognition are Dixon Moran and Gordon MacArthur for their artwork, those who contributed candid photographs, and the students who allowed us to publish their poetry. Finally I would like to thank First Colonial's staff, faculty, and students for making this a year to remember.

The seventh edition of the Heritage was published and bound by Hunter Publishing Company in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. This book was printed through the off-set lithographic process. The basic paper stock was saxony. The type used was Helvetica. All senior portraits were taken by McIntosh Studios. The cover was manufactured by Kingscraft Covers, Kingsport, Tennessee. Press run was 850 copies. Further specifications can be obtained upon request. Address inquiries to The Heritage, First Colonial High School, 1272 First Colonial Road, Virginia Beach, Virginia, 23454.

of amazement
a time to listen, speak, and do a growing world giving birth to new ideas Nixon went to China and then to Russia
skiing became the fad and pants took over the fashion scene
women's lib
and people's rights
express yourself
"do your own thing"
death became a reality when the abortion law passed and seven Israelis couldn't tell the story of the olympics
scandal was the game and Wallace rides
in a wheelchair while Republicans vs. Democrats in the Watergate incident then Shriver lost politics and his face along with Clifford Irving for a fraudulent book about Howard Hughes darkness fell again as goodbyes were said to Harry Truman
Lyndon B. Johnson
J. Edgar Hoover
and to two special people Mrs. Teabart and Mr. Baxter turmoil continues in Ireland and the Middle East food prices soared sky high while 31 skyjackers tried to get there and the Apollo program made its final moon landing of the 20th century Nixon imposed
price and wage freezes the dollar was devalued and the economy gained a boost

Dow Jones broke 1000
while Jonathan Livingston Seagull broke a million and became a best seller

"All in the Family"
gained popularity
and so did Mark Spitz with 7 Olympic Gold Medals and Bobby Fisher
for his chess victory another turn and Life was finished the last great picture magazine is gone

and while the beach was washed away Tide water was soaked by floods from Agnes and covered in white by two snowstorms

Managua was torn by earthquakes and Iceland heated by lava

Kissinger negotiated and peace finally came to Vietnam then came "Operation Homecoming" for our POW's with particular enthusiasm for F.C. students and their father's Captain Allen Brady

Commander Eugene McDaniel and Rear Admiral Jeremiah Denton who touched hearts with his words

"God Bless America" and there was celebration for a father that came home or a diploma in a hand or for summer or for peace or for being...

in our world
a drifting world a living world always trying always growing
it's amazing
to remember a year that year 1973

Debbie,

It's just about over but not soon enough.
We really did have a pretty good time in Bookending. Anyway...
Have a good summer.
I'll be thinking of you when you're in "Dr. R.
Roberts" and I'm still here for another year.
Best of luck.

Peterson

P.S. Keep the faith and you're guaranteed to go far! Gp.

Debbie,
May success and happiness follow you throughout your life.
It's been a pleasure
knowing you.

Mrs. J. Whitehurst

Debby,

Here's to a great year next year wherever the Lord leads you. Let's keep in prayer for each other.

Yours in Christ
